Presents for rich and poor alike.

Just back from city with a full line of Xmas goods. You can have no excuse now, we have the very latest goods that are on the maket; made of superior quality and style. So remarkable are the values in our store that it is almost unwise to quote comparative price lest you think values over estimated. However every article is exactly as represented, and you are invited in good faith to take advantage of our opening which is the greatest opportunity ever presented to the buying public. A little money goes a long ways at our store when you are looking for a present.

We have left no stone unturned to make this the largest display of Xmas goods ever brought to our city.

The services of a competent force of clerks always at your command.

HUGH MILLER.

I am a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk of Rockcastle county. subject to the action of the Republican party. Since attaining my majority, I have voted and worked for the upholding of the principles of the party. I propose to make a clean unbiased unprejudiced canvass. I wish to say to my friends and the people in general I have thoroughly considered this question, and the advice of many, I make this announcement. I want it distinctly understood that I was not influenced by any body or faction to enter this race. I simply come upon the faults, frailties or shortcomings of my opponents, if they have any but urge my ability to discharge the duties of the office, having had experience in writing in the office during the incumbency of the late W. REPUBLICAN DANGER

Of great significance is it that in ower of the notional ticken in a Presidential vear, men like Overstreet and Landis in this state and Hepburu and McCreary in other states have been defeated for Congress. A protest is thus represented which may reach even greater volume and insistence two years hence. The people approve what has been accomplished or earnestly, if im demand for a generial crusade against business under the anti trust laws. What has been done and what is under way along these lines will satisfy. But there is an unfilled pledge on two subjects that must be redeem ed One of these is currency reform and the other is tariff reform. Bills will undoubtly be offered and measures enacted in these fields; and the effect upon the people will depend upon the wisdom and fidelity with which the reforms are brought to pass. There is no danger of inactin; the danger is of hypocrisy and sham. Already a project is being hatched to forestall genuine trriff reform by the Sixty first Congress next spring through the device of a bogus tariff reform now. It is an enterprise fraught with danger to the Republican

An impression that the Republican national organization is altogether too solicitous for the protection of great corporations has been removed so far as the railroads and Standard Oil are concerned; but it has not been removed so far as the tariff is concerned. The conviction is well-nigh universal that the Senate oligarchy, under the rule of Aldrich, and the oligarchy, under the rule of Cannon have been more auxious to serve the powerful private interests than to serve the masses of the people. If this impression cannot be removed then we must expect to elect a Democratic Congress in 1910, and a Democratic President in 1912.-Indianapolis Star.
